Betsy and Ross

In my general yesterday I discussed the new Alliance to End Plastic Waste. Shortly before the recent Davos Summit some oil and petrochemical companies announced the creation of an Alliance to End Plastic Waste. The companies aim to beef up plastic waste collection and recycling programs, especially in East and Southeast Asia. Chevron Phillips Chemical, Exxon Mobil, Veolia, BASF, Proctor and Gamble, Dow are among the 30 members of the Alliance. Dow sent the attached information on the Alliance to a number of senior political appointees at EPA including Steven and the Chad McIntosh, the OITA AA.

As you may remember, the AA for OW, David Ross, would like his staff to meet with the Alliance. The staff from the Office of Wetlands, Oceans & Watersheds (OWOW) asked if ORCR would like to join the meeting with the Alliance and, after talking to you, I told OWOW yes. OWOW told me that nothing has been scheduled yet.

Good morning. 30 companies launched the Alliance to End Plastic Waste yesterday and I just wanted to ensure that it was on your radar. Looking forward to working with EPA on this important initiative.

Thank you, Dennis
